Mechanics' National Bank of Janesville, N. Y.—(NO SUCH BANK.)

NEW COUNTERFEITS.

Every counterfeit that has ever been made has one or more mistakes in it. Our aim is to show what that mistake is.

Rhode Is. Nat. B'k. Providence, R. I.

2s imitation. Quite well done and very likely to deceive.

5s GREENBACKS.

The green ornamental engraving lengthwise of the bill in the counterfeit is of a paler color than in the genuine, and has a brighter look than the dark green of the original. Seen under the microscope the engraving is coarse, but to the naked eye the bills have a very good appearance.

Albany City National Bank, N. Y.

19s, imitation. The engraving is scratchy, and the general appearance poor when compared with the genuine, but likely to deceive.

Mutual National Bank, Troy, N. Y.

10s, imitation. Well executed and likely to deceive. Shading of "United States" lighter than the genuine.

National Bank of Lebanon, N. H.

10, imitation. Well done.

St. Nicholas National Bank, N. Y. City.

2s, imitation. General appearance good. Shading under title of bank irregular.

Auburn City National Bank, N. Y.

10s, imitation. The paper is good and will wear well. The front of the bill is quite well done, but the back is very much blurred—the left end of the centre engraving looking as rough as a brush heap.

Marine National Bank, N. Y. City.

2, imitation. The shading under the title of the bank is bad, otherwise the bill is very good and likely to deceive.

Tremont National Bank, Boston, Mass.

2s, imit., well done, and will easily deceive the unwary.

Gore Bank, Hamilton, Canada.

4s, a very close imitation—better refuse all bills of this denomination.

20s GREENBACKS.

A dangerous counterfeit. Green ink a good color, but the paper too yellow. Principal defect in the die. No clear and distinct lines around the 20. Looks more like a collection of several spots. Female well done, but the face rather coarser than the genuine.

First Nat'l Bank, Louisville, Ky.

5s, imitation. Columbus at the left end of the note has no left hand. Engraving rather coarse and heavy.

Tioga National Bank, Owego, N. Y.

50s raised from 5. Well done.

First National Bank of Boston Mass.

5s, imitation. The engraving is fine and well done. The signatures of the President and Cashier are engraved. The Seal of the Treasury is a fac simile of the genuine. Examine the wording of the penalty on the lower corners of the back of the note. The bill is well calculated to deceive.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11, 1869.

There has been since our last report no noteworthy change in the general aspect of the money market. The latter continues to be abundantly supplied, and though call-loans still rule at 7 per cent, loans at 6 are becoming more frequent, and a few are even made at 5. Prime commercial paper continues to be readily taken at 7@8 per cent, a recent failure of a large dry goods firm in Philadelphia not having affected the easy disposition of discounting concerns. In foreign exchanges the offerings are of late predominating, in consequence of heavy shipments of U.S. Bonds and Railroad stocks to European investors. 60 days' sterling is quoted at 109½, short sight at 109½, and other European exchanges, as a rule, adjusted upon the sterling standard.

United States Bonds have, since our last writing, steadily and undisturbedly advanced, and the entire list—with the exception of registered 10-40's—commands to-day 1 per cent more than a fortnight ago. The more peaceful aspect of European affairs and the strength and confidence in the ability and willingness of the United States government to be just to its creditors, have recently caused in Europe so great a demand for investment as to carry quotations of United States securities in London, Frankfurt, etc., to unprecedented figures, which cannot fail to correspondingly affect quotations on this side of the Atlantic.

Of State Bonds, the Southern continue to be chiefly dealt in, though at lower figures for Virginias, North Carolinas, Louisianas and Tennessees.

The Railway market has, of late, been very irregular. Such it will always be, whenever cliques, who have been successful in forcing the market are about to change front, either voluntarily because of their having realized such profits as they had leagued together for, or from compulsion to give up a stronghold, which they begin to feel to have been undermined by antagonists who are getting every day more numerous and strong.

On the Miscellaneous list, Pacific Mail and Mariposa preferred have, of late, been conspicuous; the former through a break of 10@12 per cent, the latter by steadily advancing to 28½.

In accordance with resolutions adopted some time ago by both Boards of the Stock Exchange, (as by us reported in the issue of December 1st, 1868), Erie Railway Stocks and stocks of the Wells Fargo and United States Express Companies are not called at either the Regular or the Open Boards, those companies having failed to put their transfer books into the possession and control of some Trust Company or other institution satisfactory to the Stock Exchange.

Gold has recently worked itself down to a fraction below 135. There is at present a marked concentration of forces taking place on the part of Bulls as well as of Bears, to contest and hold this ground. But though the Bulls are trying the locking-up strategy on a large scale, the natural tendency of this market consequent upon heavy shipments of American stocks to Europe seems, for the present, to be in favor of the Bears.

For to-day's Stock quotations see page 19.

The bill reported by the Ways and Means Committee to prevent the further increase of the public debt, and for other purposes is viewed on Wall street as a conservative and much needed measure. The first section prohibits any further issue of bonds, beyond such as may be made to the Pacific Railroad, is needful, not only to support the public credit, but also as an assurance that hereafter the Government must keep its expenditures within its ordinary income. The third and fourth sections, prohibiting the payment of any commissions in connection with the financial negotiations of the Treasury, and making all future sales of bonds or gold publicly, are also well calculated to secure that openness in the sales of coin, which the public have long demanded as a protection against those who feed upon private information at the public expense.

BANK ITEMS.

Joseph C. Harris has been elected Vice President of the Merchants' National Bank, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., vice Richard A. Varick, resigned, and Walter C. Fonda appointed Cashier.

Geo. W. Thayer, President of the Boston Exchange National Bank, died on the 31st of January.

On the 12th of January last Martin W. Lawrence, Esq., resigned as Cashier of the Farmers' National Bank, Malone, N. Y., and was duly elected Vice President thereof, and Benjamin S. W. Clark was appointed Cashier.

C. Dawson has been elected President of the First National Bank of Pontiac, Mich., vice E. W. Peck.

A circular has been issued from the Bank of England calling attention to the fact that paper manufactured for various banking and mercantile firms contains water marks and other devices peculiar to the paper which is prepared solely for the use of the bank.

The new banking institution to be known as the Harlem Bank, has completed its organization, and will open for business about March 1, near the corner of Third avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street. The capital is $100,000, and books are open for subscription for stock at the office of Addison Smith, Esq., No. 1890 Third avenue.

SAFE BLOWN OPEN AND ROBBED IN MAIDEN LANE.—Before daybreak, on Saturday, January 30th, four or five burglars with false keys entered Mr. Daniel Hess's musical instrument warehouse at 49 Maiden Lane, and having first secured the door by nailing down pieces of wood and placing a post against it, in order to prevent the ingress of the police or others, they went to work at the Herring safe. This they placed on its side, and after drilling a deep hole near the lock, filled it with powder. The safe was then blown open, the door falling from its hinges. The burglars then took the iron cash box to the third floor, where they forced it open, and took from it all the money it contained, about fifty dollars and a number of checks. The latter were found scattered about the floor. The police saw several men coming out of the store, and suspecting they were burglars, attempted to arrest them, but only secured two of the party. The thieves had a complete set of burglar's tools. An unsuccessful attempt was made to blow open one of Marvin & Co's safes in the same building.

TO BANK OFFICERS.

The publisher begs to hereby tender his sincerest thanks to those bank officers (and government department officers) who have of late kindly sent such items and corrections for this Reporter as to make its present quotations of National Banks and officers correct to almost perfection. Whilst we propose, nevertheless, to always do our utmost towards keeping those quotations correct, we beg leave to suggest, that, this Reporter circulating 400,000 (annually), Bank-officers owe it to the interest of their own banks and of the public in general, to assist us in our endeavors to report faithfully. We will always heartily thank such, who will address us when we are inaccurate, and inform us of any changes in the organization of their banks, changes in officers, etc.

Subscriptions solicited. Private Bankers' cards inserted for $10 per annum.

DRY GOODS.

The market for domestic cotton goods has undergone no material change since our last issue. In view of the firmness of the cotton market here and abroad during most of the time, and the further advance in the market price of that staple, domestics have continued steady. The small supply of most of the leading fabrics and the dearth of others render it pretty certain that prices will be sustained, while it would seem to be highly probable that for all the old favorites better prices will be obtained. At all events there would seem to be no probability of any reduction. This appears to be the general sense of the trade.

All orders addressed to G. A. PLATT, with H. B. CLAFLIN & Co., will receive prompt attention.

CARTER'S COMBINED WRITING AND COPYING INK has been awarded the highest premiums, and is pronounced by celebrated chemists the best ink ever offered to the public. It is used by many of our largest commercial houses, banks, railroads, and other corporations, who find that it is the best they can obtain, as it flows freely from the pen, does not thicken by exposure to the air, neither will it mould. In fact, it is the Ink, and gives general satisfaction wherever used. J. P. DINSMORE, 36 Dey street, is the agent for New York City.

JAMES VICK, of Rochester, N. Y., has kindly forwarded us a copy of his Illustrated Catalogue and Floral Guide for 1869. It contains accurate descriptions of the leading floral treasures of the world, with plain and full directions for sowing seed, transplanting and after culture, handsomely illustrated with numerous engravings; also choice seeds for the vegetable garden, with instructions for culture. Any one wishing for a choice selection of flower or garden seeds could not do better than send 10 cents to Mr. Vick for one of his catalogues, as his assortment is superb.

Counterfeit notes in Ohio must be stamped with the name of the bank, banker, broker, and dealer in money into whose possession the worthless currency has come. The date of the stamping must also be added. A penalty of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, is imposed for a neglect to observe the provisions of the law, or to stamp a genuine note.

10s, upper centre, eagle on a shield; 10 in green die each side; a strip of green lathework below—right end, female erect by pedestal holding tablet, etc.—left end a large oval portrait of President Lincoln—fancy green back.

50s left centre, oval portrait of Hamilton; Treasury die in pink on right of die; 50 on die on each end of note.

COUNTERFEIT GREENBACKS.

1s, (1st kind) can be readily detected by the inferior style of the engraving, particularly the head of Chase. The mouth is crooked, the eyes imperfect, and the hair on the top of the head resembles side hair brushed over to cover baldness. The back is of a lighter green than the genuine.

1s, (2d kind) the general appearance is very coarse and may readily be detected; green ink is very pale. On the imitation there is a black straight line under the red figures on the upper part of the bill; none in gen.

2s, imit., well executed. Coat of Hamilton badly done. The shirt bosom of Hamilton is very dark and uneven, but in the genuine white and plain. The shading of the words "UNITED STATES" light and broken.

5s, 10s, genuine notes without the red seal, and others reported without the usual number being printed upon them.

5s, imit., words "United States" heavily shaded. Gen. are clear, lightly shaded and plain. The words "Patented 30th June, 1857," under the words N. York are not on the counterfeit bill. All the counterfeits are letter A, and are  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch shorter than the genuine.

On the new series of letter "A," around the figure of Liberty on left end is a plain black line. On the counterfeits, this line along the bottom of the figure running towards the right of the note forms two distinct lines, on gen. only one. But this may be a counterfeiter's dodge to have it described and alter it afterwards.

5s, imit., this bill is well calculated to deceive, and the only difference we can detect is in the die on the right end enclosing the figure 5. The genuine has three black circles enclosing the 5. The imit. has only two, and on lower right end figure 8, and on left end series 90.

10s. Paper very light, and the green ink of a lighter shade. Dated March 10th, 1862.

10s alt'd from 1s, portrait of Chase on left.

10s imit. There are 16 small Xs on upper right margin, and only 15 on the genuine. The words "Printed by the National Bk Note Co." on lower left margin extends over 9 of the Xs or imit. and 8 on the genuine.

10s, imit., has 14 small x's on upper right margin—16 on left. The gen. has 15 x's each side of engravers name. Portrait of Pres. Lincoln is very coarse and pale looking; imit. are dated Washington, March 19, 1862, letter Q.

20s, very close imit. of gen., the engraving is good, in the center figure the foot of the female can scarcely be seen. On the left end bottom are the words "Payable at the Treasury of the U. S. at New York." The A's in payable are too small and uneven. The letter 'e' in the word 'The' is not crossed in the centre. The imprint is defective; the green ink is of too light a color.

50s, alt'd from 2s, portrait of Hamilton on left centre. The vignettes of the two-dollar and fifty-dollar Treasury note are the same. Ingenious persons are counterfeiting the body of the fifties and using the vignettes of the twos, producing a note that deceives experts.

50s, imit. observe the figures 50 on back of the bill around the margin, the 5 in the imit. runs into the 0, gen. does not. The word 'FIFTY' around the above 50 can scarcely be read. Words 'LEGAL TENDER' is very much blurred. Letter C dated March 8, '63. On the left lower corner the No. 550 instead of 50 enclosed in one circle.

50s, imit., observe the head of Hamilton, upon the face of the note, which represents the line of the waistcoat crossing the white collar at the neck. The acute angle formed by the shape of the collar, so far as it is shown, is perfect in the counterfeit note; but in the genuine the lines of the flesh were drawn by the engraver across the point of the collar at its junction with the waistcoat, for the purpose of relieving the angle of the sharpness it would otherwise have exhibited. This difference is not readily observed unless the notes are perfectly clean. The other discrepancy is in the shape of the ornaments in the border on each end of the face of the bills, and in the whole border on the back. The figures "50" are engraved on a green ground, of which the rim, in the genuine bill, is in octagonal form, rather well defined, though the angles are not sharp. The eight sides of what at first view appeared to be circles, may be easily discerned. In the counterfeit bill the border ornaments, containing the "50" are octagonal in only a very slight degree, and seem to be perfect circles. The general appearance of the counterfeit gives no indication of its true character.

100s, imit. the red figures are much larger than the figures of any Treasury Notes, the wings of the eagle are very coarse—the double rule running from it is heavier, and the curve twice as large, while there is a diagonal shading at the joint of the imprint with the rule, which does not appear on the genuine. On the right end of the back of the bill, the 100 in the circles are inverted, thus, 001. In the genuine this inversion is on the left end. The imprint, American Bank Note Co., is very uneven, and too large.

100s, imit., (2d kind) of the notes issued under the act of February, 1862, well executed. The spurious note is smaller, and the coloring on the back is paler than on the genuine bill. The words "one hundred dollars" on the right hand side of the counterfeit are smaller than on the genuine note.

100s, imit., (3d kind) the note is smaller than the genuine, the spread eagle is very coarse, and the shading of UNITED STATES is badly done. The bill is calculated to deceive.

COUNTERFEIT COUPONS.

The following are the words on the coupons:

"Acts of July 17 and August 5, 1861. The United States of America will pay to bearer fifteen dollars for six months' interest due 1st January, 1867, upon bond No. 785, for $500. L. E. Chittenden, Register United States Treasury."

FIVE CENT COIN COUNTERFEITS

Are in circulation. They may be distinguished from the genuine by the softness of the metal

COUNTERFEIT FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

Old Issue.

50s, imit., the portraits of Washington differs one from another; in the genuine they are all alike; the green color looks light and pale.

25s, imit., well executed. Look out.

2d Issue.

10s, imitation. All gen. on the top has the word "Depositories," the imitation reads "Depositories."

50s, imit., have a pale slate color. The small barrels on lower right corner are very indistinct. The gen. have six barrels perfectly clear and plain. Three on lower row, two on next, and one on top. The counterfeit barrels are black, and gen. are white.

50s raised from 5s.

2d Issue.

50c. imit.; two kinds of the new long 60 cent currency. The imitation of one kind has DESIGNATED on upper right corner instead of DESIGNATED. The second kind has designated correctly spelled, but on the little American Shield, under the Eagle, there is a black line drawn across the upright bars of the Shield. Not so on the genuine.

25s, imit., are very pale and coarse. The letter C in cents on left end is smaller than the other letters, and too far off.

New Issue.

25, imitation. Above the words "Treasury Department," on the bottom of the bill in the genuine there is a fine horizontal line—the counterfeits have a straight line.

25s, imit., well executed, but may be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word Treasurer under Spinner's name; the work is better than any we have previously seen and liable to deceive unless carefully examined.

25s, well executed; head of Chittenden; where it reads "Furnished only by the Assistant Treasurers" the Assistant is spelt "Assistants." In the genuine the shading of the letter "E" in "Five" is unbroken, while the counterfeit has a little notch in it.

50s, well executed. The engraving on the face of the note is excellent. The adverse is slightly blurred. The notes are an eighth of an inch narrower than the genuine.

50s, the "y" in "Colby's" name crosses a line of the coat in the genuine, but not in the counterfeit.

50s, the line of stars on counterfeit between the figures "50" at the top and bottom of the back of the note have white centres, while the entire stars on genuine are in green. The reading in black on the genuine note clear and distinct, while on the counterfeit the bronze is printed on the black, the words "FIFTY CENTS" being almost obliterated.

50s, well done. The last "e" in the signature of F. E. Spinner is omitted in some, and the (.) after print, on one end, and the d. after March 80.

50s. New and dangerous counterfeits of the last issue of the fifty cent fractional currency notes, which bear upon their face the head of Treasurer Spinner, have been detected by the Treasury Department. It can be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word print on the right end, and also under the letter "d" in "March 8d," on the left end. The paper is thicker than that of the genuine notes, and the general appearance is calculated to deceive unless closely inspected.

Counterfeit Compound Interest Notes.

50s, imit., Compound Interest Notes, have a scratchy appearance, issue of July 15th, 1864. In the imitation the words "three years after date" on the top of the bill nearly touch the words "Treasury Department," while in the genuine there is a space of  $\frac{1}{2}$  of an inch between.

2d. In the imit. the last hutton of Hamilton's coat is  $\frac{1}{2}$  of an inch from the lower margin of the small 50s, while in the gen. the button touches the margin.

100s, Counterfeit 6 per cent. Compound Interest Notes. The engraving as well as the paper and the ink stand the comparison to the genuine. The "U" in "United States" touches the die of the "100" on the left upper corner; on the genuine there is a space of  $\frac{1}{2}$  of an inch between.

O. H. Clark, Pres. M. McMichael, Jr., Cash.

Detected by the shading under Phil

By the absence of shading on the words

"currency" on upper right corner of the bill being spelled "currency."
